

Lead Us to the King of Kings

We have seen a light, shining in the night Prophecy of old,
spoke of such a sight Now we have been searching for our one true heart's desire

*Lead us to the King of Kings
We have brought an offering
We have come to bow before the Lord of Lords*

We were far away,
waiting for the day
When the Prince of Peace, would be born to reign Bethlehem by no means is the least among this land

There are enemies, plotting wicked schemes Fighting for false claims, for the right to reign Unable to quench the love that overcomes the grave
